EASTER SUNDAY

Dear Parents, Teachers and Boys,

It has been a while since I last wrote to you. A very Happy and Blessed Easter to each one of you and your near and dear ones.

The past month or so has been very hectic for all of us in school. The results were there for all to see. Thank you to all our Teachers, Boys and Parents for working together to put up a wonderful display of Drills and Sports. Parents and Teachers, you were truly patient and remarkable. I want to thank our three wonderful Coordinators, Mrs. Kabir, Sir Satpal and Mrs. Ashkenazy for their extraordinary dedication, commitment and competency in handling the entire Sports and Drill programme. The two Teachers, Sir Kamal Roy and Sir Edmund Kharkongar along with all our gents teachers, slogged every afternoon and during the day to ensure that our boys performed with class and precision. The windy conditions accompanied by dust, definitely played havoc.

Our Teachers

too braved the dust, heat and the erratic weather conditions that were not so conducive to the smooth running of the sports. Thank you, Teachers, Boys and Parents, for your wonderful commitment, patience and understanding. You deserve a big Congratulations too! Enjoy your Easter break. God bless.

WHAT IS MY EASTER STORY TODAY? DO I HAVE ONE TO TELL OTHERS?
